Abstract:

In the spirit of “ideas worth spreading,” TEDx is a program of local, self-organized events that bring people together to engage with each other and share a TED-like experience in their own community. At a TEDx event, videos of TED Talks and live speakers combine to spark deep discussion and connection. These local, self-organized events are branded TEDx, where x = independently organized TED event. TEDxKyoto, which began in 2012, has grown into the largest TEDx event in Japan with 800 participants and will hold its fourth annual event on November 8th. TEDxKyoto is managed entirely by an unpaid, core team of 40 volunteer organizers from the Kyoto area community who, on the day of the event, organize over 200 volunteers including students from several area high schools and universities as well as international exchange students. The main event, which is held on the campus of Kyoto University of Foreign Studies, serves as a catalyst that invokes deep thought, sparks human connections, engages the community, and leads to increased opportunities to bring new innovations to life. The three presenters, all members of the TEDxKyoto organizing core team, are teachers of EFL and engage in content-based teaching in high school and university. They will share with the audience about TED, TEDxKyoto and offer some ideas for using TED talks as a learning platform in the English classroom, including project-based learning.

概略：
